Notice of Class Action Settlement

If you currently or formerly (1) have/had a Bank of America credit card, (2) enrolled in Bank of America's eBill AutoPay for your credit card, (3) selected the "Amount Due" payment option between June 4, 2014 and March 7, 2021, and (4) as of May 21, 2021, switched your payment option from "Amount Due" to "Account Balance" after making an "Amount Due" payment and being assessed interest from June 4, 2014, a class action lawsuit may affect your rights.

THIS NOTICE IS JUST A SUMMARY. FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CALL 1-855-535-1849 OR VISIT WWW.CREDITCARDAUTOPAYSETTLEMENT.COM.

Who's Included? You received this postcard because you have been identified as a cardholder of Bank of America, N.A. ("BANA") and a potential Settlement Class Member. The Plaintiff in the class action lawsuit alleges that BANA did not adequately disclose that an "Amount Due" payment option offered in connection with BANA's eBill AutoPay for BANA credit cards would result in payment of only the minimum amount due, and not the full amount due, which resulted in customers choosing "Amount Due" when they intended to pay the full account balance. BANA denies any wrongdoing or liability and denies the allegations. A settlement of the class action has been reached. Under the proposed Settlement, you may be entitled to a payment.

What Are the Settlement Terms? To read a more detailed description of the terms of the proposed Settlement, please visit www.CreditCardAutoPaySettlement.com or call toll-free 1-855-535-1849. If the Settlement is approved, Settlement Class Members will be entitled to receive a payment under the Settlement, and any legal claims that you may have or could have in the future regarding the payments at issue will be released.

How Can I Get a Payment? Every Settlement Class Member who does not request to opt out of the Settlement will automatically be sent a Settlement Fund payment via check. In other words, you do not have to do anything to receive a payment; you will automatically be sent a check unless you opt out of the Settlement.

What Are My Other Options? If you do not wish to be bound by the terms of the Settlement, you must exclude yourself from the Settlement by September 11, 2021. You also may instead formally object to the Settlement by September 11, 2021. Visit www.CreditCardAutoPaySettlement.com for information on how to do so. The Court will hold a hearing on November 17, 2021, to consider whether to approve the Settlement and a request for attorneys' fees and service awards. Details regarding the hearing are in the long-form notice, available at www.CreditCardAutoPaySettlement.com. You may appear at the hearing, but you are not required to do so. You may hire your own attorney, at your own expense, to appear or speak for you at the hearing.
